

THE WEBER HONORS COLLEGE SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

The Weber Honors College is both a community and an academic curriculum focused on engagement and achievement for students from all academic and cultural backgrounds. All students in the Weber Honors College complete a 16-unit interdisciplinary minor that is made up of small, innovative, discussion-based seminars as well as high-impact educational experiences beyond the classroom, including study abroad, research, leadership, service, and creative activity. This distinctive curriculum prepares students for future graduate work and successful careers regardless of their chosen field of study. There are multiple pathways to enter the Weber Honors College--as first-year students, sophomores, juniors, or transfers.

BENEFITS

- Innovative interdisciplinary minor that helps students stand out and be distinctive
- Smaller classes (around 25 students) focused on unique, contemporary, and relevant topics that students care about
